

Burns Night Supper

25th January 2012

2 courses £16.95 // 3 courses £21.95

A Burn's Supper is a celebration of the life and poetry of Robert Burns who lived from 1759-1796 and is regarded the National poet of Scotland. January 25th was his birthday. At The Rummer, we are celebrating in our own style by offering this menu full of 'delicious' traditional old Scottish recipes. We hiner ye enjoy it!

To Begin

Breads served with Beetroot and Mushroom Pates and Blue Cheese Cream

Starters

Smoked Salmon with Pickled Cucumber and Oat Cakes
Celleriac Soup with Pickled Apple and Walnut Jam
Roast Breast of Woodpigeon with Parsnip Whisky Cream

Mains

Cullen Skink

Smoked Haddock Chowder

Haggis, Neeps and Tatties

Classic dish with swede and potatoes

"If Ye wish her grateful prayer, Give her a Haggis!" – Address to a Haggis (R. Burns)

Vegetable Stovies with Roast Field Mushrooms

'Stove' also means stew or to stew in Scots

Desserts

Almond Shortbread with Cranberries and Whipped Cream
Drambuie Chocolate Mousse
Apple and Ginger Cake with Whisky Ice-cream

Please ask to see our full list of single and blended Scotch whiskys.

A discretionary 10% service charge will be added. Please alert us to any allergies.